EURES Targeted Mobility Scheme

Jobseekers

Finding it hard to get a job or training opportunity in your country? Thinking of working abroad, but you do not know how to overcome the daunting obstacles?

Try the EURES Targeted Mobility Scheme.

What is Targeted Mobility Scheme?

- It offers dedicated support from national employment services for people seeking work, training or apprenticeships in another EU country, Norway or Iceland.
- On a fair basis, it tackles the needs of jobseekers to remove mobility obstacles.
- It helps employers in these countries who are looking for motivated and qualified workers.
- Available support includes funding to cover things like language courses, getting your qualifications recognised, travel and subsistence expenses.

Who can apply?

- Jobseekers aged 18 and over.
- Nationals of an EU country, Norway or Iceland – or anyone legally resident in these countries.
- Any jobseeker, regardless of their qualifications.

Employers

Are you looking to recruit people with a specific profile, but struggling to find them in your own country? Want to build a multicultural team that can give your business the edge?

Try the EURES Targeted Mobility scheme.

What is Targeted Mobility Scheme?

- It offers your business dedicated support from local employment services to recruit motivated and qualified jobseekers from other European countries for work, traineeship or apprenticeship.
- If you are a small or medium-sized business, you can also apply for financial support to cover some of the training and integration costs for these new staff.

Who can apply?

- All businesses or organisations based in an EU country, Norway or Iceland, regardless of economic sector or size
- Any business offering a written workcontract of at least:
 - 6 months for jobs or apprenticeships
 - 3 months for traineeships.
- Any business/organisation offering a placement that is compliant with national law.

Where can your business recruit?

In any EU country, Iceland or Norway
