

CIEM MADA offers, as a member of the CIEM Group, customized solutions for renowned international companies in the automotive industry. Through continuous development and improvement of its products, the Italian CIEM and MADA group of companies is represented by 11 companies in 9 countries.

Project manager automotive (m/f/d)

What can you expect?

- Organizational and technical management of projects
- Coordination with the project partners
- Continuous assurance of project results TCQ (timeline, costs, quality)
- Acceptance and completion of the project once the project goals have been achieved.
- Checking specifications and creating functional specifications.
- Review of opportunity and risk assessments of projects / orders

What we are offering

- Work in a family-orientated group of companies.
- Work from home for specific office tasks.
- Overtime paid or converted to days off.
- Annual commission or project commission
- Company cell phone / laptop.
- For travel we have arrangements with car and car sharing providers,
- If you are travelling further afield, we will of course book you a flight or train ticket.

What qualifications and experience do we need?

- You are a technician, a bachelor or a master in engineering
- You are a team player with good communication skills and intercultural competence.
- You got an excellent technical affinity with good assertiveness
- You have good project management experiences in conveyor technology plant engineering.
- You speak and write Italian, German and optionally English.
- You are willing to travel and spend longer periods on site, mainly in Germany.

Ready to become part of the team?

Then we look forward to receiving your application!

CIEM MADA GmbH
Neckarstraße 66
76199 Karlsruhe
info-gmbh@ciemmada.de

Your CIEM MADA Team

---

