Taking up an employment

- Accommodation
  - Employers are aware that seasonal workers need accommodation and most of them offer a room or a shared apartment which could be for free or with minimum cost. Larger companies usually have secured accommodation for their employees. Tourist entertainers and animators are accommodated in hotels and camps where they work.
- Meals
  - At least one meal, if not all three, is offered for free and additional meals won't cost much. Meals are provided in restaurants for personnel which is (most of the time) near working location.
