So here I am!
Showing you our ambition for quality, innovation, and sustainability.
To accomplish excellency, we have a demanding and hardworking team that projects us to the level of the Cosmos.

To expand our vision, we manufacture machinery and accessories for cleaning and plating forest soils and the industry.
Our products are living proof of our ambitions.

This is where you come in!

We have a job opportunity waiting for you: Sales Professional

In this role you have to:

- Work remotely in your area of residence, close to clients;
- Provide technical support to the client;
- Have close cooperation with operational departments;
- Comply with International benchmarking;
- Have excellent communication skills;
- Have excellent reporting skills;
- Build long-term client relationships.

It is preferable to have:

- Availability to travel;
- Fluency in English (mandatory), French (preferential), and Spanish (preferential);

You can be part of a skilled team of professionals and a proactive company, environmentally concious, with hybrid machinery that contributes to the circular economy.

Fravizel is an engineering Portuguese company with more than 38 years of experience.

LET'S MAKE OUR CLIENTS WORK EASIER
